

Call for Board Member Nominations

The Tariq Khamisa Foundation (TKF) invites inquiries and nominations for its Board of Trustees. TKF is looking for leaders committed to creating safer schools and communities through educating and inspiring children in the restorative principles of accountability, compassion, forgiveness, and peacemaking.

Our volunteer board ensures the growth and impact of our services to youth, schools, and communities. In the last year the board has created a strategic plan and adopted new bylaws to guide this growth and position TKF to confront the challenges presented by the pandemic and racial inequalities. New board members will have a crucial leadership role in the next stage of fulfilling TKF's mission.

All of our Board members:

- Are passionate about, and committed to, TKF's mission and values.
- Are driven by a commitment to restorative and social justice principles that celebrate diversity, uniqueness, and collaboration.
- Are positioned to help us grow and make a positive impact on the community.
- Able to represent TKF to community leaders including schools, parents, local government, donors, educators, and the business community.
- Have the bandwidth and commitment to meet the leadership, advocacy, service, and fundraising requirements of the role.

We are seeking Board members who are one or more of the following:

- Individuals eager to work on behalf of youth, schools, and communities and are not already overextended with other commitments.
- Community leaders and philanthropists willing to engage their peers on the importance of creating safer schools and educating young people in the ways of making peace.
- Leaders in our partner sectors such as education, criminal justice, youth services, technology, public affairs—interested in building a strong program with us.
- Corporate leaders with a demonstrated history of organizational development.
- Astute social justice advocates who can help us advance best practices in dismantling racism and ethnic oppression.
- Parents, grandparents, and others who have a talent for chairing successful fundraising events and promotions.

Overview of Service:

- Terms are for three years with a maximum of two consecutive terms.
